- Definition: Speak as though the decision has already been made.
- Example: “Let’s go ahead and get the paperwork started.”
- When to Use: Buyer is enthusiastic and showing strong buying signals.

---

2. Option Close

- Definition: Offer two positive options, both leading to a close.
- Example: “Would you prefer the standard package or the premium package?”
- When to Use: Buyer is ready but weighing alternatives.

3. Definitive Close

- Definition: Be direct, clear, and concise.
- Example: “Shall we move forward today?”
- When to Use: Buyer has all the information and is showing readiness.

---

4. Summary Close

- Definition: Recap the main benefits agreed upon.
- Example: “So, we’ve agreed this solution saves you 20 hours a month, reduces errors by 15%, and helps you scale. Are you ready to move forward?”
- When to Use: To reinforce value and show you’ve listened.

---

5. Temperature Close

- Definition: Ask for feedback to test readiness.
- Example: “On a scale of 1–10, how ready are you to move forward?”
- When to Use: To uncover hidden objections or hesitation.

6. If/Then Close

- Definition: Set conditions to move forward.

- Example: “If we can meet your delivery timeline, would you be ready to proceed?”
- When to Use: When a buyer has a specific barrier to address.

7. Tie-Down Close

- Definition: Gain agreement through small “yes” answers.
- Example: “This solution would save your team time, right? And reduce errors, correct?”
- When to Use: To build momentum and buyer agreement.

---

8. Takeaway Close

- Definition: Withdraw the offer when fit is in doubt.
- Example: “It sounds like this may not be the right fit for you at this time.”
- When to Use: As a last resort when the buyer isn’t committing. Sometimes creates urgency.

Exercise – Close Matching

- Present scenarios (e.g., excited buyer, hesitant buyer, buyer with budget objection).
- Participants role-play choosing and delivering the best type of close.
- Debrief on what worked and why.

Key Takeaway

- Trainer says:

  “Closing is not about pressure, it’s about clarity. By mastering different closes, you’re ready to meet the buyer where they are. Remember — the longer the bridge and the bigger the problem you’ve uncovered, the more natural the close becomes. You’re not forcing a decision; you’re guiding one.”

Participant Worksheet –The Art of Closing

Instructions:

For each type of close, read the definition and example, then write your own version that you could use in your sales conversations. Think of a real product or service you sell (or will sell).

1. Assumptive Close

Definition: Act as if the buyer has already decided.
Trainer Example: "Let's go ahead and get the paperwork started."

Your Version:

---

2. Option Close

Definition: Give two positive choices that both lead to a decision.
Trainer Example: "Would you prefer the standard package or the premium package?"

Your Version:

---

3. Definitive Close

Definition: Be direct and concise.
Trainer Example: "Shall we move forward today?"

Your Version:

---

4. Summary Close

Definition: Recap the benefits before asking for the sale.
Trainer Example: “This solution saves you time, reduces errors, and helps you scale. Ready to move forward?”

Your Version:

5. Temperature Close

Definition: Test readiness with a question.
Trainer Example: “On a scale of 1–10, how ready are you to move forward?”

Your Version:

6. If/Then Close

Definition: Tie a condition to moving forward.
Trainer Example: “If we can meet your delivery timeline, would you be ready to proceed?”

Your Version:

7. Tie-Down Close

Definition: Ask confirming questions to build a “yes” pattern.
Trainer Example: “This would save your team time, right? And reduce errors, correct?”

Your Version:

8. Takeaway Close

Definition: Step back if the solution isn't the right fit.
Trainer Example: "It sounds like this may not be the right fit for you at this time."

Your Version:

Reflection Questions

1. Which closing style feels most natural to you? Why?

2. Which closing style feels least comfortable? How could you practice it?

3. How will you know when to use each type of close with your buyers?

👉 This worksheet reinforces practice and helps participants "own" the closes in their own words.

Trainer Guide – Participant Worksheet (Closing)

---

1. Assumptive Close

Definition: Act as if the buyer has already decided.
Trainer Example: “Let’s go ahead and get the paperwork started.”

Sample Participant Response:

- “I’ll get your delivery scheduled for next week.”
- “When would you like us to start implementation?”

---

2. Option Close

Definition: Give two positive choices that both lead to a decision.
Trainer Example: “Would you prefer the standard package or the premium package?”

Sample Participant Response:

- “Would you like the 6-month plan or the 12-month plan?”
- “Do you prefer on-site training or virtual training?”

3. Definitive Close

Definition: Be direct and concise.
Trainer Example: “Shall we move forward today?”

Sample Participant Response:

- “Are you ready to get started?”
- “Should we lock this in now?”

---

4. Summary Close

Definition: Recap the benefits before asking for the sale.
Trainer Example: “This solution saves you time, reduces errors, and helps you scale. Ready to move forward?”

Sample Participant Response:

- "We've discussed how this saves you $10,000 annually, reduces rework by 20%, and increases team productivity. Shall we proceed?"

---

5. Temperature Close

Definition: Test readiness with a question.
Trainer Example: "On a scale of 1–10, how ready are you to move forward?"

Sample Participant Response:

- "How close are we to moving forward today?"
- "What's your confidence level that this solution fits your needs?"

---

6. If/Then Close

Definition: Tie a condition to moving forward.
Trainer Example: "If we can meet your delivery timeline, would you be ready to proceed?"

Sample Participant Response:

- "If I can get this approved for budget this quarter, would you be comfortable moving forward?"
- "If we include the additional training, would you be ready to sign today?"

---

7. Tie-Down Close

Definition: Ask confirming questions to build a "yes" pattern.
Trainer Example: "This would save your team time, right? And reduce errors, correct?"

Sample Participant Response:

- "This solution improves efficiency, right? And it reduces costs, correct?"
- "This gives your team what they've been asking for, doesn't it?"

---

8. Takeaway Close

Definition: Step back if the solution isn't the right fit.
Trainer Example: "It sounds like this may not be the right fit for you at this time."

Sample Participant Response:

- "If you're not ready to commit, it may be best to revisit later."
- "I don't want you to invest in something that doesn't align with your goals — maybe we pause here."

Reflection Coaching Notes

1. Most Natural Close → Encourage participants to lean into their natural strengths.
2. Least Comfortable Close → Have them role-play this one more than the others.
3. When to Use Each → Reinforce: it depends on buyer readiness signals, not salesperson comfort.

✅ This trainer guide ensures facilitators can model answers and correct participants gently if they drift off track.

Chapter 5.7: Module 5a – SUSTAIN: Follow-Up & Referrals

Diagnostic Quiz (Participant Self-Check)

Rate yourself 1–5 on the following:

1. I have a structured system for following up with clients.
2. I consistently check in after the sale to ensure satisfaction.
3. I ask for referrals confidently and regularly.
4. My follow-up process adds value rather than just "checking in."
5. I know how to turn a happy customer into an advocate.

Scoring Guidance:

- 20–25: Strong follow-up habits.
- 15–19: Good foundation, room for improvement.
- 10–14: Inconsistent — this module will help greatly.
- Below 10: High-priority skill to develop.

Purpose (Trainer Script)

"Closing the deal is not the end of the sales cycle — it's the beginning of a relationship. Follow-up creates loyalty, reduces buyer's remorse, and ensures repeat business. Referrals are the most cost-effective and high-trust source of new opportunities. This module will help you structure a follow-up system that builds advocates, not just clients."

Framework: The Growth Loop 🌱

1. Reassure – Ensure satisfaction and reduce buyer's remorse.
2. Reinforce – Highlight the value and benefits they've already received.
3. Request – Ask for a referral in a natural, confident way.
4. Reciprocate – Offer value in return (resources, introductions, gratitude).
5. Repeat – Make follow-up a rhythm, not a one-time event.

Trainer Notes on Referrals

- Teach participants when to ask (best right after value is experienced).
- Provide scripts for soft asks:
    - "Who else do you know who might benefit from what you've gained here?"
    - "If someone in your network is facing similar challenges, would you feel comfortable connecting us?"

Exercises

- Role Play: One participant is the client, the other practices follow-up after a deal closes. Switch roles.
- Referral Ask Practice: In groups of 3, each participant practices their referral ask; group provides feedback.

- Mapping Activity: Participants create their own 30-60-90 day follow-up plan.

Participant Worksheet (Highlights)

1. List 3 ways you can add value in follow-up beyond 'checking in'.
2. Write your personal referral ask statement.
3. Design your 30-60-90 follow-up schedule (touchpoints and methods).

Chapter 5.8 – Impulse Selling: Thriving in Short Sales Cycles

(Retail, vendor booths, event sales)

Diagnostic Quiz: Impulse Selling Readiness

Rate yourself 1–5.

1. I can quickly capture attention in the first 30 seconds.
2. I'm comfortable selling without deep discovery.
3. I use clear, concise benefit statements that connect fast.
4. I can handle objections in less than a minute.
5. I close with urgency without feeling pushy.

Scoring Rubric

- 🌱 5–10 = Needs stronger tools for short-cycle selling
- 🌿 11–18 = Some confidence, needs refinement
- 🌳 19–23 = Solid skills, polish delivery
- 🌟 24–25 = Natural impulse seller

Purpose

Impulse selling is about planting quick blooms 🌼 — some plants sprout in days, not months. In the same way, these sales don't have time for deep cultivation. They require speed, clarity, and confidence.

Trainer Script

"Impulse sales are like wildflowers — if the soil and sun are right, they bloom instantly. But you must plant quickly, water fast, and move on. Today, we'll learn how to close with speed while keeping integrity."

Framework: The 3 R's of Impulse Selling

1. Reach – Grab attention with one strong hook.
2. Relevance – Connect benefit to immediate need.
3. Resolve – Ask for the decision directly.

Exercises

- 30-Second Pitch Drill – Practice cutting your pitch to 3 sentences.
- Speed Objection Game – Handle objections in under 45 seconds.
- Closing in the Moment – Role-play with urgency-based closes.

Chapter 5.9 – The Art of Negotiation: Cultivating Win-Win Growth

Diagnostic Quiz: Negotiation Confidence

1. I feel comfortable discussing price and terms.
2. I can separate positions (what they ask for) from interests (what they really need).
3. I know how to add value without discounting.
4. I can walk away if the deal isn't healthy.
5. I aim for win-win outcomes.

Scoring Rubric

- 🌱 5–10 = Avoidant
- 🌿 11–18 = Willing, but unsure
- 🌳 19–23 = Solid but needs tools
- 🌟 24–25 = Confident, win-win negotiator

Purpose

Negotiation is like grafting branches on a tree 🌳✂️ — it requires care, patience, and the right cuts to produce healthy growth. Done well, both parties thrive. Done poorly, the branch dies.

Framework: The 4 Ps of Negotiation

1. Prepare – Know your soil (research, walk-away terms).
2. Probe – Uncover their roots (what they really value).
3. Propose – Shape the deal like pruning for healthy growth.
4. Partner – Commit to mutual benefit.

Exercises

- Root & Branch Role-Play – Participants uncover true needs under surface requests.
- Value Swap Drill – Trade non-price concessions (timeline, extras, access).
- Walk-Away Line – Define "deal breakers" in advance.

Chapter 5.10 – Selling in Tough Environments: Thriving in Harsh Soil

Diagnostic Quiz: Resilience in Sales

1. I stay motivated even when sales are slow.
2. I adapt my strategy to economic or local challenges.
3. I can reposition value when budgets shrink.
4. I find creative ways to reach new buyers in limited markets.
5. I believe tough times create unique opportunities.

Scoring Rubric

- 🌱 5–10 = Easily discouraged
- 🌿 11–18 = Tries, but inconsistent
- 🌳 19–23 = Adaptable, needs structure
- 🌟 24–25 = Thrives in tough soil

Purpose

Tough markets are like rocky ground 🌵 — not every seed thrives, but with resilience, adaptation, and persistence, you can still produce fruit.

Framework: The 3 Rs of Resilience

1. Reframe – See challenges as opportunities.
2. Reinvent – Adapt offers and strategies.
3. Reseed – Double down on effort and new channels.

Exercises

- Scarcity Storytelling – Practice framing solutions in terms of cost-saving, efficiency, or survival.
- Adaptation Challenge – Redesign your pitch for a shrinking budget.
- Market Shift Drill – Teams role-play selling in different economic downturn scenarios.

Chapter 5.11 – Positive Communication: What You Say Matters

Diagnostic Quiz: Language Awareness

1. I avoid negative words that shut buyers down.
2. I consciously replace "can't" with "can."
3. I frame problems as opportunities.
4. I use language that creates motion and energy.
5. My buyers leave conversations feeling encouraged.

Scoring Rubric

- 🌱 5–10 = Needs replanting (negative habits dominate)
- 🌿 11–18 = Occasional slips, needs awareness
- 🌳 19–23 = Mostly positive, needs polish
- 🌟 24–25 = Growth-minded communicator

Purpose

Words are water for your garden 💧 — they can nurture growth or poison the soil. Positive language helps buyers lean in, feel safe, and take action.

Framework: "Say This, Not That"

1. Replace Limiting with Expansive
   - ❌ "That's not possible."
   - ✅ "Here's what we can do."
2. Replace Negative with Constructive
   - ❌ "The problem is…"
   - ✅ "The opportunity here is…"
3. Replace Push with Pull
   - ❌ "You need to buy this today."
   - ✅ "Imagine the results you could start seeing today."

Exercises

- Language Swap Drill – Rewrite 5 negative phrases into growth-focused alternatives.

- Garden of Words Activity – Each participant plants (writes) one positive phrase on a card; facilitator builds a "garden wall" of phrases.
- Buyer Role-Play – Practice handling objections using only positive language framing.
